

Public Relations Department, Chandigarh Administration
www.chandigarh.gov.in Press Release

Chandigarh, February 6:- CHANDIKRIT-2010, an Industrial Fair organized by the Department of Industries, Chandigarh Administration will commence from February 19, 2010. The five day fair will be organized at Parade Ground, Sector 17, Chandigarh. For the first time micro, small and medium enterprises of Chandigarh, Haryana and Punjab States have been invited for participation to exhibit/ sale their products during the fair.

Participation charges @ Rs. 7500 for five days fair would be charged for one stall from each participant in the shape of bank draft payable in favour of the General Manager, District Industries Centre, UT Chandigarh. On the recommendations of any Government/Semi Government Organization engaged in the development of Social Welfare, Rural, Handicrafts, Khadi & Village Industry activities, 50% discount in participation charges will be allowed.

Colourful Show would be organized every day to add color to the fair. This exhibition is exclusively organized for the small and medium scale industrial entrepreneurs and local traders for exhibiting cum selling their products, technical know-how and to get assistance in tapping new technologies and markets and explore new business ventures. Any request for participation can be rejected by the Director of Industries UT, Chandigarh without assigning any reason. The last date for the receipt of participations is February 12, 2010. For further details and booking please contact the Superintendent, District Industries Centre, (U.T) Plot No. 39 Industrial Area Phase II Chandigarh. Tel No. 0172- 2679006, 2679007.