

Public Relations Department, Chandigarh Administration
www.chandigarh.gov.in
Press Release

Chandigarh, March 8:- Nehru Yuva Kendra Chandigarh today celebrated International Women Day at Government Model Middle School, Sector 23 D, Chandigarh which was followed by a Blood Donation Camp, in which 41 youth from various youth clubs & vocational centers donated their blood. The programme was organized under the supervision of Dr. G.S. Bajwa, District Youth Coordinator and Dr. Saroj, In charge of Blood Bank Society Government Multispecialty Hospital Sector 16, Chandigarh.

The Blood Donation Camp was inaugurated by Mr. Jaswir Singh Ahluwalia, Deputy Director, NYKS-Haryana Zone. Dr. Saroj In-charge Blood Bank Society briefly informed about the outstanding achievements of women from various spheres that have made great contribution in their respective fields. Mrs. Promila told that women at large should come forward and strengthen their inner power to achieve justice and overall development.

On the Occasion, Mrs. Niraj, Mrs. Bimla, Mrs. Neelam, Sudesh, Dhanwant, Preeti, Savita, Mrs. Saroj, Mrs. Daljeet Kaur, Mrs. Promila and Mrs. Babita were honored for their contribution in the field activities of NYK-Chandigarh.