Press Release

Chandigarh, March 9:- In a section of media, certain newspaper reports have appeared which give an impression that HE-the Administrator has sought to take stock of on going projects of UT of Chandigarh with a view to have a re-look at those projects which were initiated during the time of his predecessor. In this regard, a spokesperson of Chandigarh Administration clarified that there is no such orders ever been issued by HE-the Administrator which by any chance indicate any review of the projects which were undertaken at the time of his predecessor.

The Administrator has only desired to know the details of the projects which are on going or in pipeline so that he can have a correct status of various projects and all the projects are implemented as per the time schedule. The overall purpose of this exercise is also to have a proper and appropriate planning for the future of Chandigarh to make it one of the best cities in the country with its distinct character and its distinct planning.
