

Public Relations Department, Chandigarh Administration
www.chandigarh.gov.in Press Release

Chandigarh, March 12:- Indian Council for Child Welfare (ICCW), UT Branch conducted a refresher course for fifty Anganwadi Helpers (AWH) at Bal Bhawan. This course was started on March 9, 2010 and concluded today. During this course, the AWH were given awareness regarding Child Development, Pre-School education, Health and Nutrition. AWH has prepared a kit for children and this kit was exhibited.

Sh. Samwartak Singh, Director Social Welfare was the chief guest on the concluding function. The trainees expressed their views and read the brief report regarding this course. They emphasized that they should be given more service benefits. On this occasion the trainees gave beautiful performance in form of a skit regarding working of Anganwadi Centers.

Mr. Singh averred that the Anganwadi functionaries are the key persons of our society. They have direct link with the society. If we want to give any message to the masses we have to depend upon Anganwadi functionaries. He expressed satisfaction with the contents of the training and assured more such trainings will be arranged through ICCW, UT. DSW stressed upon Health, Education, Hygienic & proper development & care of the child. Mrs. Tejinder Bajwa, Programme Coordinator highlighted the activities of ICDS on this occasion.