Press Release

Chandigarh, September 6:- The UT Powermen Union has given a call for observance of one day strike on September 7, 2010 in pursuance of the call given by Central trade Unions.

A spokesman of UT Administration stated that 'The Chandigarh Administration has always been sympathetic to the genuine demands of the electricity employees and there is no cause for any strike by the employees. The Principle of "No work No Pay" shall be strictly enforced. The employees are, therefore, advised to attend duty. The defaulting employees will also be liable for other disciplinary action under ESMA (Essential Services Maintenance Act)'.

Necessary arrangements for maintaining the continuity of power supply though has been made but chances of failure of power supply due to any untoward incident cannot be ruled out. The electricity consumers of UT Chandigarh are requested to kindly co-operate with the Administration.

The public is requested, in general, to contact the various Complaint Centres in their area for electricity complaints. Besides above, they can also contact the control room. The public is also requested to keep a vigil on the electricity lines and in case they find anyone indulging in sabotage the power supply may inform the Police Control Room and contact the Control Room Sector 17 at 2703242, 2700200; Control Room Sector 9 at 2742370, 2743940; Citizen Facilitation Centre at 4639999 and Complaints on SMS 8054104518.
