

PRESS RELEASE

Food Safety & Hygiene Training Programme “PARIVARTAN” was today i.e.on 22-12-2017 launched by Sh. Anurag Agarwal, IAS, Home Secretary-Secretary Health, U.T. Chandigarh at Indian Medical Association, Sector-35, Chandigarh. Dr. G. Dewan, Director Health & Family Welfare, U.T. Chandigarh was also present on said occasion. The said training programme was organized by Kandhari Beverages Pvt. Ltd (Bottler of Coco cola India Pvt. Ltd.) in collaboration with Department of Food Safety & Standards, Chandigarh Administration, Chandigarh. Under the said programme, the trainers will train the city road side and small food vendors in a specially designed Bus, which is provided by Coca Cola India. The bus is having classroom type facility within built LCD screen. The bus use to stationed in different sectors, villages of the city where there are street and small food vendors and through this classroom facility the vendors will get training, how to maintain hygiene and sanitation in their food cart/ premises and are made aware about the safety of their food.

-sd-

Standards

Designated Officer
Deptt. Food Safety &
Chandigarh Administration